WITH ARTIST Igor Babailov

AT AVE MARIA UNIVERSITY

Igor Babailov is one of the most sought-after artists of our time. Recipient of numerous awards, Babailov received his master of fine arts degree doctorate level, from the prestigious Surikov Academy. His works are in museums, galleries, and private collections worldwide. He has painted officially commissioned portraits of world leaders, celebrities, and social, business, and political elite, including Pope Benedict XVI (Vatican Museum); Pope John Paul II (Vatican Museum); President George Washington (Mount Vernon Estate and Museum); President George W. Bush (Presidential Collection); President Nelson Mandela (Presidential Collection, South Africa); President Vladimir Putin of Russia (Presidential Collection - Kremlin); Prime Minister Brian Mulroney of Canada (House of Commons – Parliamentary Gallery); America's Mayor, Rudolph Giuliani (Giuliani Partners, NYC); and Secretary of State and Former First Lady Hillary R. Clinton (Clinton Presidential Library).

New York Magazine featured Babailov as one of America's top artists of our time, and he is acclaimed by critics and his contemporaries as "Living Master". He serves on several distinguished boards, including the Child Art Foundation in Washington, D.C., he is a member of the prestigious National Arts Club in New York, is recipient of the international arts award 2009 "The Golden Star" medal and order of "Serving the Arts 1st Degree", and he is an exclusive speaker of the celebrated Harry Walker Speakers Agency of New York.
